City to buy new DPW building

By HENRY CANTIN

The Romulus City Council has authorized the purchase of a newly constructed industrial building as the new headquarters for the Romulus Department of Public Works (DPW). It will cost $472,000. The new structure, built under the supervision of Schostak Bros. & Co., Inc., Realtors of Southfield, is located at 34100 Goddard Rd., Romulus.

The structure is situated on a 12-acre land parcel that will be included in the purchase. The city council's action to replace the present DPW facilities, located at 36515 Bibbins St., Romulus, was taken at last Thursday's meeting of the council.

Councilman Ellis T. Pennington after deliberations by council members, made a motion the city purchase the new structure. He was supported by Councilman Brooker R. Edwards, and the motion was unanimously adopted by the council.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, with the assistance of City Attorney John E. Young was instructed to proceed immediately with preparations to purchase the new building and land and to report back to city council on the financing arrangements and recommendations.

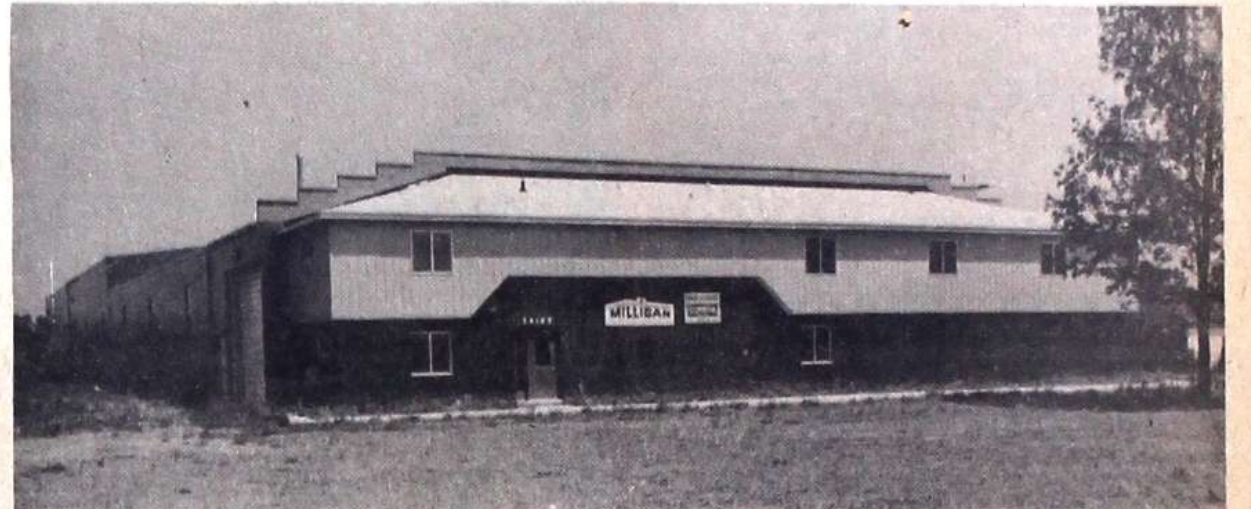

The new facility has approximately 40,000 square feet of available space. It has 3,100 square feet of air conditioned offices, eight truck doors, railroad siding and a class A road nearby. The new building is five minutes from Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

The present DPW building is a one-story structure which now houses all DPW facilities and equipment. The building has been in use since the early 1960's and is presently termed "inadequate" for increasing activity of the DPW crews.

The DPW quarters were originally located at the old township hall, at Sterling Street and Goddard Road. The department, initiated in the early 1950's, was manned by a five-member crew.

Since then the DPW has grown to a staff of 40, including inspectors and office personnel. Required DPW equipment to maintain operations has more than doubled since May, 1970, when the community of Romulus adopted cityhood.

William A. Pritula, director who headed the water department prior to his appointment as city DPW director, had reported the city was in need of expanded DPW quarters.

NEW DPW HEADQUARTERS — An exterior view of the new DPW headquarters for Romulus is shown. The recently constructed building, located at 34100 Goddard Rd., is situated on an 11-acre parcel of land and has approximately 40,000 square feet of available space. It will replace quarters presently being used at 36515 Bibbins St. The Romulus City Council has approved the purchase of the building and has instructed Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and City Attorney John E. Young to proceed with preparations for the purchase of the building.

Robert Plank to run for county commission

Robert D. Plank, 40, of 9960 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus, Monday announced he has filed nominating petitions for the Aug. 8 primary election to the Wayne County Board of Commissioners in the 26th District.

Plank, who is currently serving his second term as chairman of the Romulus Democratic Club, is a member of the 15th Democratic District. He served as constable from 1955-59 when Romulus was a township.

Plank, making his first bid for a county-wide elective post, is married. He and his wife, Donna, are the parents of 10 children ranging in age from 2 to 17 years. He is a builder by profession.

In commenting on his candidacy, Plank said:

"I am running because I feel the 26th District is not getting its fair share in representation and service. We paid the majority of the taxes and the City of Detroit received the majority of the service."

Plank has been active in nearly all phases of civic and social activity in Romulus. During the last two to three years, he has often been called upon to act as spokesman for concerned citizens groups and community development programs.

Romulus has been in the 24th Commission District, represented by incumbent John N. Sabo Jr. During the recent redistricting, the city became part of the new 26th

ROBERT D. PLANK

District, which includes Flat Rock, Rockwood, Huron Township and part of Taylor. He will oppose Sabo in the primary.

Mayor Smith to run for state rep post

Royce E. Smith, 56, four-term mayor of the City of Belleville, has announced his candidacy for the state representative's seat for the new 22nd Michigan Legislative District.

The 22nd district embraces the communities of Belleville, Ypsilanti township, City of Ypsilanti, Van Buren Township and part of the City of Romulus.

Smith has filed his nominating petitions in Lansing, as required since the 22nd district's areas are located in two Michigan counties.

Smith, who has been elected mayor of Belleville four times (his present term runs until November, 1973), served one year on the city planning commission and two terms on the city council before being elected mayor. He is an active member of the 15th Democratic District.

He also is currently a member of the Patronage Committee and Executive Board of the Democratic State Central Committee of the 15th Democratic District.

Smith, who initiated a lawsuit along with two Grosse Pointe Woods investment counselors to halt construction of Detroit's proposed riverfront stadium, reported he gave a considerable amount of deliberation before arriving at his decision to run for the state representative post.

The lawsuit ended in a favorable decision by Circuit Court Judge Blair Moody Jr. and a decision by the Michigan State Supreme Court upholding Judge Moody.

"I am running as a concerned candidate and mad at the way things are being run in the state legislature. I can't understand why the state legislators would permit the people to be obligated to support private enterprise (proposed stadium) and let the school system fall apart. This is the most ridiculous thing I ever heard of.

"Some state legislators have said the busing problem is a federal problem. I think it is everybody's problem and that the schools definitely should be under local control.

"The tax structure for the financing of schools has got to be revised, and the most available plan in my opinion at the present time is a graduated income tax.

"Such a tax measure should include a provision that none of the monies so raised would be used for cross-district busing. The graduated income tax proposition would have to be presented to the electorate, as it would involve a state constitutional change.

Wayne County Commissioner John N. Sabo Jr., 47, of the 24th District, Monday announced he will seek re-election to the new 26th District in the Aug. 8 primary election. Sabo is running on the Democratic ticket.

Sabo, who resides at 1220 Inkster Rd., Taylor, was elected to his first two-year term in November, 1970. This term expires in December of this year.

The new 26th district embraces the communities of Rockwood, Flat Rock, Taylor, Romulus and the Township of Huron. Taylor and Romulus are all that remain of the old 24th District. The district's boundaries have been redrawn due to population shifts.

Prior to reorganization in January, Sabo served on the following Wayne County committees — Planning and Improvement, Public Works, Rules, Transportation, Industrial and Commercial Development and the Ways and Means Committee.

Sabo, who resided in Taylor for 29 years, is the father of four children. He has been in business in Taylor for the past 16 years.

He is treasurer of the Taylor Rotary Club, a member of the Moose Lodge for 15 years, a member of the Taylor Democratic Club, belongs to the 15th Democratic district, and is past vice-president and a charter member of the Taylor Chamber of Commerce.

He also was a member of the Taylor City Council for four years and the City Charter Commission for Taylor.

He also was a member of the

business in Taylor for the past 16 years.

Sabo will run for re-election

Tandem oil rig upended

A double-tandem oil tank truck tipped over and spilled several thousand gallons of fuel oil into the Romulus sewer system last Wednesday.

Wayne County Sheriff's deputies said the truck, carrying 27,000 gallons of fuel, rolled over as it swung onto the westbound entrance ramp of the I-94 freeway at Middlebelt Road at 10:49 a.m.

The driver of the Standard Oil Co. rig, Harold J. Smith, 54, of 29450 Hathaway, Livonia, told deputies he was just gaining speed to merge into freeway traffic when the front trailer tipped and pulled the tractor over with it.

The cab and trailer landed on their right sides. The impact punctured a hole in the trailer.

Smith was pulled from the cab by Romulus firmen and was treated for head and leg injuries at Annapolis Hospital.

Oil continued to leak from the damaged tanker for more than a half-hour, deputies said. Firemen used several thousand gallons of water to wash down the road and neutralize the oil that leaked into the sewer.

Fire officials said there was no danger to the water system from the spillage.

Traffic in the area was backed up for nearly five hours by the disabled truck.

Arrington selected for Harold Cass award

John Arrington, 6229 Irma St., Romulus, an outstanding Romulus High School athlete, has been presented the 1972 Harold Cass Award by the Romulus Jaycees.

This award, in the form of a $25 U.S. Savings Bond, signifies the recipient as an outstanding individual not only on the playing field, but in the classroom and in life as well.

The award, named after the well-known coach of previous Romulus reknown, is given annually to a person who has met the following qualifications: maintained a 2.0 or better grade average, earned four or more letters in more than one sport over the course of his high school career, and in the eyes of his coaches, exhibited leadership, sportsmanship and personality which stands out among his peers.

The nominees are presented to and voted upon by the Jaycee membership at the May meeting each year. The Jaycees indicate the amount of the award is deliberately kept low and little emphasis is placed on the award until the end of an individual's high school life. In this way the above qualities will have been honestly shown and therefore properly rewarded.

John Arrington, surpassed all qualifications by earning nine letters in football, wrestling and track, and by achieving nearly a B grade average. All reports on his

High court rules

By HENRY CANTIN

The Michigan State Supreme Court last Friday upheld a permanent Wayne County Circuit Court injunction against construction of Detroit's proposed $126 million multi-sports riverfront stadium.

The court's ruling, another victory for Mayor Royce E. Smith and Belleville residents, upheld an injunction issued June 1 by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Blair Moody Jr.

Judge Moody's decision permanently halted the delivery of $126 million in county-backed bonds to finance the construction of the stadium.

The Supreme Court's decision, issued without formal opinions, upheld Moody's opinion that the proposed stadium would be built by Wayne County mostly for use by the Tigers, a private business, and that such an arrangement violates the Michigan Constitution. The bonds had been sold but were awaiting delivery to their owners.

Thomas B. Adams, chairman of the Wayne County Stadium Authority, said he hoped his group could "work around" the court's decision by making whatever changes the court requires to build a public stadium legally.

He and his group are consulting with their legal staff in this regard.

The Wayne County Circuit Court law suit was initiated by Mayor Smith and two Grosse Pointe Woods investment counselors, Marc Allen and William R. Kelly. Smith filed the lawsuit on behalf of Belleville taxpayers.

The state Supreme Court's ruling may effectively kill any chance of constructing the stadium. The ruling may also effect the financing and construction of Pontiac's proposed $44 million stadium slated for use by the Detroit Lions.

Following the court's ruling,

Tiger owner John Fetzer said he would not renegotiate the terms of a lease agreement with the Wayne County Stadium Authority. The Tigers were to pay $668,000 annual rent to the authority, plus receiving half of the revenues from the concessions.

Local painter awarded contract

Charles E. Woods, interior decorator, of 35236 Ecorse Rd., Romulus, has been awarded a painting contract for the painting of the Romulus Senior High School gymnasium, 850 lockers and the football field fence.

Woods' bid of $4,822, the lowest of three received by the school district, was approved by the school board June 12.

The board also awarded the contract for sealing asphalt driveways, parking sites and

"There's not going to be any renegotiation of our lease. We have been very happy operating in Tiger Stadium. We can use that stadium for years more," Fetzer said. Detroit Lions owner William Clay Ford said, "I really don't know what it all means for the Lions' future in Pontiac."

A $3,000 bid submitted by Milbrand Maintenance Inc. of 21200 Schoenherr Rd., Warren, for roof repairs at the Gordonier and Beverly Elementary Schools and the Special Services Building was approved by the board.

Roy Smith seeks re-election

State Rep. Roy Smith (R-Ypsilanti) has announced his bid for re-election to his fourth term from the 22nd Michigan legislative district.

The 48-year-old legislator had the option to run as an incumbent in any of the three new districts - 22nd, 23rd and the 52nd - which formerly constituted part of his constituency.

Rep. Smith, recently announced his candidacy for re-election to a group of supporters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Johnston, 1349 Skyway Dr., Ypsilanti.

Smith was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1966. Prior to this, he served as Ypsilanti township supervisor from 1959-66, the last four years as a Republican member of the township board. He also served as chairman of the old Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors.

Smith attended Oberlin College and received his degree in geology from the University of Michigan. He is a member of the Golden Rule 159 F & AM Masonic Lodge of Ann Arbor and American Legion Post 282.

The World War II Marine Corps veteran and his wife, Shirley, have three children. The Smiths reside at 5780 Whittaker Rd., Ypsilanti. They are members of the Calvary Baptist Church of Ypsilanti.

The new district comprises Ypsilanti, Ypsilanti Township, Van Buren Township, the City of Belleville and part of the City of Romulus.

Smith said that because of the reapportionment, he had the option to run for election as an incumbent in any one of three districts which embraced part of his district prior to the reapportionment. He said his decision to run in the 22nd came after much deliberation and soul-searching on his part. He said he had been urged by many of his supporters to run in either of the other districts, which are predominately

ROY SMITH

Republican in voting sentiment, because it was felt re-election would be assured in either of those districts, whereas the 22nd district, because of reapportionment, is considered to be predominately Democratic.

He said that from a standpoint of practical politics, it would have been easier to run in one of the other districts, but he felt in the final analysis this would have meant turning away from the major portion of the people who had originally sent him to the state House of Representatives.

Smith no longer will represent his old constituents from Milan, York, Augusta, Superior, Salem, Northfield and Webster.

"There comes a time in public life when loyalty to the people who have been loyal to you becomes a paramount over practical politics. I have ample evidence from the past also that those who have been loyal to me have been so regardless of party affiliation, and while I have accomplished many goals I have set out to accomplish while a member of the legislature, I still have many objectives to accomplish on behalf of the people who elected me."

Reminiscing about the old Texas School

By ROBERT L. MCCONEGHY Superintendent of Romulus Schools

The Romulus Board of Education owns three acres of land on the corner of Harrison and Goddard roads upon which stands a closed two-room building known as Texas School.

Recently I received a notebook containing some interesting information relative to the history of Texas School. Also included were pictures of PTA officers and teachers and minutes of PTA meetings and other historical material dating back to the 1940's.

The Texas School to which the information refers is not the two-room, cinder block building presently on this site, but a one-room, frame building which eventually became a five-room school.

When I first came to Romulus in 1954, that five-room building was still in use and continued in use until the present Harrison School was opened in 1956.

I can remember calling a square dance in that building one Halloween. The way the floor reacted with all the jumping, I thought the building might collapse.

I don't know who kept this notebook, or who offered the material; however, as an item of information of a special interest to some of the older Romulus residents, the history section of the material follows:

"Texas School sets where there was once a large marsh known as the Texas Marsh. Goddard Road was once a cow-path. It wound up around the Taylor Center School, which was located where the Cape Cod Settlement is now. This school was to be moved to the four corners known as Taylor Center.

There also was a Lutheran school here, opposite the Lutheran church. The men who were moving the school got it up on skids and out into the road where they had to leave it because of bad roads.

The children didn't mind at all. You see, there was not much traffic in these days. They finished out the rest of the year in the middle of the road.

Texas School was built in the year 1872 and opened in 1873 as near as we can find out. Taylor and Romulus townships were divided; one-half mile of Taylor Center and one mile of Romulus. That is why our school is called Romulus-seven-fractional.

Mr. Prouty says this is so, because his sister, Mrs. E. Smith, was born in 1859 and she moved to what is known as the Prouty farm (between Inkster and Holland Roads on Goddard), in 1872.

Mr. Prouty remembers many interesting things about Texas School. Its one room was different from the four rooms there are today.

To be sure, there was the woodshed where wood was kept and where some "bad ones" were warmed up a bit. The school was white and not red, as the song goes. Teacher rang a hand-bell when it was time for school to call. There was the pump outside and the pail and dipper inside from which everyone drank.

The older scholars sat in the center aisles on the rough, slivery planks and leaned against them too, while the younger ones sat primly on planks lined around the wall of the room. When the weather was very cold, everyone sat around the low, long heater that burned logs.

Often the classes were held here until recess time.

Teachers were usually hired for winter and spring terms. A man was hired for the first term and a lady was hired for the second term. The school-master and school-mistress always boarded around the neighborhood. The children of the family usually shared lunches packed in one basket with the teacher, the fastest eater getting the biggest part of the lunch often times.

In these days people believed that if you spared the rod, you would spoil the child and, if a day went by without someone getting the hickory-stick, there was something wrong with the teacher.

So many a Peck's Bad Boy went home with great welts raised on the proper place by a "black-snake," hickory-stick, rubber hose or ruler.

Many have been sent head long down the center aisle, if he failed to do as the master asked.

The Three R's were taught plus a little geography, history, physiology and lots and lots of spelling, for those were the days of the old-fashioned spelling bees.

Unenforced local laws won't resolve littering

The State Highway Department's soaring cost of pickup along freeways in the tri-county Detroit metropolitan area is evidence that unenforced anti-litter laws are no better than no laws at all.

The department is paying out $318,000 this year for freeway cleanup chores necessitated mostly by trash falling from uncovered trucks, says Robert Perry, the department's maintenance engineer for the Detroit district.

It isn't that Detroit officials didn't recognize the problem and act on it. They did, enacting an ordinance requiring trucks hauling trash to be covered while moving on highways.

But the situation is now worse than at the time the ordinance was passed - because the covered-truck ordinance isn't enforced, not even for trash-hauling trucks operated by the city, according to Perry.

And it isn't only Detroit. Two years ago, at the time of the Santa Barbara oil spill, Walter Hickel, then secretary of interior, made a personal inspection, after which he reported to the nation that there already were enough "tough" laws on the books to protect the environment from its destroyers if enforced, but are meaningless because they hadn't been enforced.

Because Detroit - and several other municipalities - have chosen to look the other way rather than enforce the law, the State Highway Department is seeking a state law requiring that dump trucks be covered while moving on the highways.

The department has had support from motorists whose lives at worst are imperiled by trash on high-speed freeways and at best are inconvenienced.

But the covered truck proposal also has its opponents - chiefly the truckers and the Teamsters Union, with the argument being that tarpaulins are heavy and reduce the payload.

Michigan has an impressively good record in law enforcement, especially in the environmental area. This probably accounts for the act the opponents of a state law requiring covered dump trucks have been waging such a determined fight.

Obviously, they'd prefer tough local ordinances nobody bothers to enforce.

House approves many appropriation bills

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK
State Representative
38th District

Working toward a recess later this month, the House has moved on a number of budget bills, including the often controversial welfare appropriations measure, the state's second largest spending bill.

The big social services bill and five other spending measures were passed in one day. Approval of the welfare bill came after a long debate on more strict requirements in social services programs, particularly the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) provisions. The bill is now under consideration in the Senate.

It was felt by many that the "Get tough" welfare bill would actually hurt state social services programs and that it is in direct opposition to present federal requirements. It was also claimed that some of the amendments added to the bill are unconstitutional or illegal.

In addition to an amendment permitting state welfare eligibility standards and a state cutoff of funds if the federal funds are suspended, other changes which seemingly challenge federal authority are:

—A requirement that any adult recipient, except the elderly, blind or disabled, work is available. Also excluded were persons with children under six years old if the federal government if the Senate accepts the House provisions.

The federal requirements permit required work only in conjunction with federal work-incentive programs, and prohibit checks being made out to persons other than the recipient. It could also mean that state social services authorities would have to decide whether to follow federal law or state law.

Other budget bills approved by the House include: $482.5 million in restricted funds; $31.7 million for regulatory agencies, broken down to $19.9 million for the Department of Commerce, $17.8 million for the Department of Labor, and $3.98 million for the Department of Licensing and Regulation; $22.5 million for the Department of Natural Resources and $10.1 million for the Department of Agriculture (both included in the same bill); $47.4 million for state police and $4.5 million for the Department of Military Affairs (same bill), and $80.3 million for general government costs.

In other action, the House has approved and sent to the Senate a revised state-local revenue sharing bill. It will set aside $140 million in state-collected revenues for cities, counties, townships and incorporated villages.

Ask Senator Griffin

Orphan act could make adopting easier

By U.S. SEN. ROBERT P. GRIFFIN

EDITOR'S NOTE — Senator Robert Griffin will answer questions of general interest through columns in The Daily Eagle. He will answer personally all correspondence addressed to: Sen. Robert P. Griffin, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510

Question: My husband and I have been trying to adopt a Vietnamese orphan since last August. At first we were helped by an Amny chaplain, but now the case is bogged down in the Vietnamese bureaucracy. We have received little help from the government agencies we turned to. Can you help us?

—D.H., Detroit

Answer: In April, I introduced a bill in the Senate entitled the "Vietnamese Orphan Act" which would make it easier for American citizens to adopt Vietnamese children who have been orphaned as a result of the war in Southeast Asia. If passed by Congress, the bill would cut through a lot of the red tape and bureaucratic obstacles you have encountered. The bill is now pending before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and you could help get action by writing to the Chairman, Senator J. William Fulbright, Washington, D.C.

CARROLL RIGNTER'S horoscope

Tomorrow's forecast from the Carroll Rignter Institute

Gneral tenedenicies: Everyone is likely to have a chip on his shoulder, or he or she, will be quarrelsome today until sundown and only by maintaining a smile and cooperative attitude does it seem possible to steer clear of some pretty difficult situations. However, the evening funds much better influences at work and you can get bigwigs' support.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you are argumentative with partners today, you certainly can get yourself into a peck of trouble. Await the evening before asking favors, etc. Show you have poise and savoir faire with everyone.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Try not to argue with fellow workers today and endeavor to work along as much as you can. Show good friends how much you like them in p.m. and establish a happy rapport. Make better plans for the future.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Although having fun is on your mind, it is best you handle all those important duties ahead of you first and then tonight to go-go. Show your are businesslike in your dealings with others. Forget the personal.

Moon children (June 22 to July 21) Push thorough with whatever promises you have made to others and gain their respect and goodwill. Soft pedal that personal aim. Do some entertaining at home that is worthwhile.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) The daytime is best for business affairs and shopping, while the appointments you like are best relegated to tomorrow. Show you are well controlled. Make a fine impression on others.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You waver between impetuosity and fear today, so find the happy medium that gives you right action and helps you reach decisions. Think over responsibilities in a wise way. Avoid going off on tangents.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) If you try to force others to your way of thinking you can get into much trouble and lose out on potential benefits possible otherwise. Evening is time for the social. Make sure you put a curb on your temper.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Evening is best time to get right results both in buiness and where romance is concerned, so take it easy during the day. Keep busy at easy routine work during day. Show you are dynamic in p.m.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) The evening is best for asking favors of others and getting them to join in some fine plan you have in mind. Get busy with detailed work during the day and it will be behind you. Avoid one who is testy.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Doing anything risky during day could lower your respect within your community, so take care and stay on the safe side. Listen to what a high executive says to you. Get out of the town later on in the day.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Those new ideas you have require more study especially where details thereof are concerned, so get busy at that early. Prepare well for any trips you want to take in the near future. Figure cost well, too.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Figure what you really owe others which should be paid right away, and then make the payments and keep credit good. Forget your day hunches, since they are apt to be wrong. They work fine tonight though.

If your child is born today he or she will be one of those fortunate young people who will be most charming and likeable and will gain the favor of others easily by the simple expedient of a smile, but is apt to be a fussbudget if you do not teach early to show consideration for others. A good chart for whatever work requires cooperating with others a good deal, since your youngster is hardly the kind who likes to work alone. A fine social life here. Ethics early, too.

Romulus High PTSA attempts to heighten community support

Teacher-Student Association (PTSA) have initiated a membership drive in order to gain more community support.

The Romulus High School PTSA was formed in the spring of 1971 to solve a series of problems that arose at the high school. At the time, a real effort was being made to understand the turmoil and conflict that had occurred at the high school.

A few leaders sought the aid of the PTA organization as one means of opening communication channels between all concerned with education in Romulus. It was hoped this would relieve some of the tensions and improve understanding of school problems, and to a degree it did, association officials reported.

However, the leaders became bogged down in their revival of the PTSA in the fall of 1971. Each of the leaders was involved in a world of activity which left the PTSA open to criticism for lack of activity. No others offered to keep the organization functional, apathy took over, a quorum of 19 of the 109 members could not be found and the group deteriorated to nothing.

In a membership drive statement, PTSA officials said:

"We who sincerely believe there is still a place and need for the type of activity and philosophy a group of parents, teachers and students could lend to education in Romulus High School urge you to pledge your support to our cause. The cause is improvement of the total education of each and every student in Romulus High School."

"A channel of communication that will reach parents and teachers is vital to students—an understanding of what happened between teachers and students is vital to parents—and having parents and students involved in their education is imperative for effective teaching."

Residents who may want to become involved are requested to send their name, address and telephone number to PTSA Membership, C/O David Ferdon, Romulus High School, 9650 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus, Mich. 48174.

Residents who respond to the PTSA's plea will be contacted in September for the association's first meeting.

Jaycee essay contest winners are selected

The winners of the recent Romulus Jaycee Essay Contest were announced Monday by John J. Domas, contest chairman.

The winners were honored at the annual Romulus Junior High School Honor Assembly held June 13.

"What Americanism Means to Me" was the subject of the contest, which was open to all seventh and eighth graders at Romulus Junior High School. More than 80 students entered the contest and all received a certificate of award for their participation.

First prize went to Tammy Marie Kitchens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kitchens of 15628 Harriet St., Romulus. Her prizes included a $50 U.S. Savings Bond (donated by Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, Romulus branch), a wall plaque and an American flag.

The second prize was won by Andrew Joseph Orgovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Orgovan of 6896 Ball St., Romulus. He was the recipient of a $25 Savings Bond, a wall plaque and an American flag.

The third prize was awarded to Timothy Dale Rhoton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Rhoton of 39366 Chase Rd., Romulus. The prizes for third place were a $10 check, a wall plaque and an American flag. The second and third prizes were donated by the Romulus Jaycees.

The essays were judged on their content, including originality and relation to the subject, organization, including clarity and brevity, and English usage, including spelling, choice of words, sentence structure, grammar and punctuation.

All essays submitted for final judging had the names of the students removed. The essays were assigned a code number, making the author completely anonymous to the judges.

The three men serving as final judges were Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of Romulus, Joel R. Carr, principal of Romulus Senior High School, and Judge James B. Stone of the 34th District Court in Romulus.

The Romulus Jaycees would like to extend their appreciation to the above individuals, to Stuart Hobbs, principal of the Romulus Junior High School, and the teaching staff.

The Romulus Jaycees' request for permission to use the softball diamonds at Romulus Senior High School has been granted by the Romulus Board of Education.

The Jaycees were permitted to use the baseball facilities at the high school with the understanding that parking and other facilities, if provided, will be on an out-of-pocket cost basis.

The Jaycees requested the use of the diamonds for a period of 10 Sundays this summer.

Age deferment OK'd by board

A request from Mrs. Sadie Austin of 35725 Bibbins St., Romulus, to continue her employment with the Romulus Community School District has been granted by the school board.

Mrs. Austin, who has attained the age of 65, is employed as a janitress at the Romulus Junior High School.

Her request requested she be permitted to continue work after the age of 65.

Merriman's luncheon was organized by Mrs. Carole Bales and Mrs. Pat Reid.

THINK SMALL.

Think Small is our way of reminding you to drive carefully in the next several months when our children will be on side playing. By "Thinking Small", you will help insure the fact that they will grow up safe and happy.

After all, you were a child yourself not so long ago. Remember those carefree days when you played ball and rode your bike? Well today, it's difficult to enjoy all those youthful pleasures while living in fear that some reckless driver is going to end your life before it really begins!

Stop and think. As a driver you hold the power of life and death every time you get behind the wheel. In the next several months you will have the opportunity to exercise your power as thousands of children are on vacation, playing in the streets.

All you have to do to insure their safety is drive each street as if it were "your own".

Romulus girl, Pennsylvanian wed in Lansing

The Alumni Memorial Chapel on the campus of Michigan State University was the scene of the May 27 wedding of Beverly Irene Twitchell of East Lansing and John Edward Denbow, Jr. of State College, Pennsylvania.

The ceremony was performed at ten thirty in the morning by the Rev. Raymond Rademacher before some 100 friends and relatives. Double candelabras adorned with ribbons and greenery graced the altar. Organ music was played by Frank Zejac of East Lansing.

Beverly, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Twitchell of Romulus, chose an all-white gown of crepe and teardrop Venice lace featuring a high collar, long sleeves, empire waistline, and A-line skirt. Venetian lace accented the collar, bodice and hemline with a sunburst of matching lace inserted in the detachable chapel train.

SHE CARRIED baby's breath and three long-stemmed white roses which were presented to her bridegroom's and her mother immediately following the nuptials.

Mrs. Sandra De Santis was chosen as matron of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Mary Alice Denbow of Beaver, Pennsylvania, served as bridesmaid.

Donning identical ensembles, they appeared in floor-length gowns with white organza forming the scoop-necked bodices and patch-trim making up the A-line skirts. Hot pink satin encircled their picture hats and they carried single long-stemmed pink roses.

The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Denbow of Beaver, Pennsylvania, asked his brother, Thomas M. Denbow, to be best man. Others on the esquire side were David Davis of Beaver, Pennsylvania and Dale A. Twitchell of Romulus, brother of the bride.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding, Mrs. Twitchell wore an A-line street-length dress of white lace over yellow linen. Her accessories were in white and her corsage comprised of sweetheart roses. Adding a similar corsage to her beige linen frock was the bridegroom's mother whose accessories were in chocolate brown. Also presented with flowers was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. James Bouts, who came with her husband from De Witt for the occasion.

The newlyweds were later honored at a champagne buffet in the Centennial Room of Kellogg Center at M.S.U. After honeymooning for a week in Northport and East Lansing, the couple took up residence in State College, Pennsylvania where the bridegroom is employed in the Public Information Office at Pennsylvania State College where he is completing his M.A. degree in journalism. A graduate of Beaver High School, he received his B.A. degree from George Washington University in the nation's capital.

The new Mrs. Denbow is a Romulus High and Michigan State alumna having earned her B.A. in journalism. Until her marriage she was associate editor of the M.S.U. faculty newspaper.

Dr. and Mrs. Denbow entertained at the rehearsal, dinner May 26 at the Starboard Tack in East Lansing.

Bruce arrives for summer visit

BRUCE GIELINSKI, who's been living in Delray Beach, Florida for the past six months, is back in town to see all his old friends and re-new acquaintances. Here for the summer, he's making his headquarters with his sister and brother-in-law, Donna and Glenn Taylor at 53 Edgemont Street.

The son of Edward (Edgey) Gielinski, Bruce has taken on the pastimes of skin diving and surfing and the hobby of an aquarium — a salt-water version for which he catches his own fish.

The 13-year-old, who was a seventh grader this past school year, maintained an A average and finds himself really enjoying school in the Sunshine State.

On hand to welcome him back to Michigan when his plane landed at Metro last Monday evening were his nieces and nephews, Randy and Cheri Walker, Scott Taylor and Britton and Harley Wright.

Open house marks graduation

DANNY KNOX, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knox of Lauren Court, was the honored guest Sunday at an open house from one to six in the afternoon.

A member of Belleville High's graduating class, he was congratulated by friends and relatives from Wayne, Westland, Ypsilanti, and Belleville.

The party was given by his parents as well as his aunt, Mrs. Mary Carter of Alabama, and his grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Osborne of Prescott, Michigan. The event brought four generations together for the first time, the newest member of the family tree being Jennifer Burt Ladd, who was born May 30.

"And baby makes three"...

THE FAMILY trees on both sides of the family listed a new entry June 14 when Christopher Michael Harkai put in his appearance. A 'first' for the Dennis Harkais of Willis Road, Belleville, the infant is also the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. David Dubisky of Savage Road and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harkai of Willis Road.

The new heir, whose mother is the former Diane Istvan, was born at Beyer Memorial Hospital, his weight being registered at 6 lbs. — 3 oz.

Brothers graduate... high school, college

AL AND PAULA Miller of Robbe Avenue had a pair of graduates in their family this year since their sons were on the receiving end of diplomas. Martin J. (Marty), a member of Belleville High's class of 1972, has received his college acceptance and will be a student at Western Michigan University this fall.

His older brother, David P. Miller, completed his fourth year at Michigan State this spring and now holds a degree in business education. An alumnus of the class of 1968 at Belleville High, he was active in intramural sports at State and did his student teaching in bookkeeping and typing at Lansing's Harry Hill High School.

Attending commencement exercises in East Lansing June 11 were his parents and Miss Sharon Ochs of Lambertville.

Get-together held for Floridians

FORMER BELLEVILLITES, the Leonard Huges of Tarpon Springs, Florida, arrived at Metro Airport Sunday morning for their annual summer visit. Meeting their plane were their son and family, the Ed Huges of Ann Arbor, who that evening, entertained at a family get-together which served as a combination welcome home and Father's Day celebration.

The senior Huges will make their headquarters in Ann Arbor during their six weeks stay.

Bavarian Festival highlights week

THE BAVARIAN Festival in Frankenmuth was on the social calendar for a group of Romulus women recently. Motoring northward on a beautiful, sunny Wednesday were Mrs. Emelie Bloom, Mrs. Marion Guyar, Mrs. Dorothy Icenogle, Mrs. Leona Love, Mrs. Rita Soave, Mrs. Margaret Mortensen, Mrs. Catherine Pritula and daughter, Elsie, Mrs. Sarah Versteeg, Mrs. Adele Muck, and Mrs. Riley.

Birth announcement omits grandmother

LITTLE DANNY Glover, Jr., whose birth was announced in last week's paper, also has a paternal grandmother but, somehow or other, the fact that she exists was inadvertently omitted from the story.

Mrs. Fred Glover, who's very proud of her new grandson, was nice enough to send in all the information on the newest member of the family tree and, wouldn't you know, it was HER name that was missing in the write-up.

A recipe trio with a flair

Hunting and splendid game cookery is a tradition. The know-how needed to cook game is used at Holiday Inn's Kopper Kettle restaurant in Grand Island, Neb. Their recipe for Rock Cornish Hens adds the moisture and flavor that's often needed in these tiny birds. Whether you're serving hardy pioneers or distinguished Frenchmen, there is an elegance to serving an individual game hen on each plate. The flavorful Mock Wild Rice served with it is inexpensive and easy to prepare.

Travel has influenced regional cooking to such an extent that it's not surprising to find a cold Spanish soup as the chef's specialty in the heart of the Cherokee nation. Gazpacho, from the Holiday Inn in Muskogee, Okla., compliments the game hen, adds a continental touch and serves as soup, salad and vegetable. Make the gazpacho the day before to develop the flavor; and to make sure it's really cold when you serve it.

ROCK CORNISH HENS

4 Rock Cornish Hens
4 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup cream
Flour
½ cup butter
1 can (10-½ oz.) condensed beef broth
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
Juice of 1 lemon
1 large onion, finely chopped

Clean, rinse and pat hens dry with absorbent towel. Rub inside of each with 1 tablespoon butter and salt. Dip each hen in cream, then roll in flour. Brown over medium heat in the ½ cup butter in Dutch oven or heavy skillet. Add remaining ingredients. Bake in Dutch oven or casserole at 300 degrees F. for 45 minutes to 1 hour or until hens test done (drumstick-joints move easily when turned). Serve with Mock Wild Rice. Serve 4.

MOCK WILD RICE

2 tablespoons olive oil
1 onion, finely chopped
1 cup converted rice (uncooked)
¼ cup parsley flakes
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon salt
Pepper
1 cup hot water
1 can (10½ oz.) condensed beef broth

Heat skillet; cover bottom with oil. Add onion, rice and parsley; saute until rice is browned. Put into ½-quart casserole; add seasonings, hot water and beef broth. Cover and bake at 300 degree F. 45 minutes until all liquid is absorbed. Stir. Serves 4.

GAZPACHO

3 cups chopped ripe tomatoes
1 cup finely chopped green pepper
½ cup finely chopped onion
½ cup finely chopped cucumber
1 clove garlic, minced
¼ cup olive oil
¼ cup lemon juice
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon paprika
Dash Cayenne pepper
1 can (10 ½ oz.) condensed chicken broth
3 cups tomato juice
Croutons

Combine tomatoes, green pepper, onion, cucumber and garlic in 3-quart bowl or soup tureen. Stir in olive oil, lemon juice and seasonings. Pour chicken broth and tomato juice over all; stir. Cover and chill thoroughly. Add croutons to each serving. Makes eight 1-cup servings.

Croutons
Dice 2 pieces of bread and saute in ½ tablespoons butter. Combine 2 teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese and ½ teaspoon salt in sack; add bread cubes and toss.

Widow resents improper title

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: My husband recently passed away and almost immediately my mail began arriving addressed to Mrs. Edith Gannon. Is this correct? I think I am still Mrs. John Gannon. I have mentioned this to friends and was told it is correct to use my given name. — Mrs. J.G.

Your friends are wrong. A widow continues to use her husband's name. Certainly your preference should be respected. Make it clear to your friends, and refer them to my book. When I do give this social rule, however, many elderly women who have been using their own names, perhaps for 20 or 30 years, are upset. They believe that social rule or no, it would be senseless to change at this point to the names of their husbands long dead. I agree that they should not.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: My grandmother, who moved to San Francisco after my grandfather's death 20 years ago, expressed a wish to be buried in our family plot here. She wants to leave the money to have my grandfather disinterred and brought here for burial alongside her. He is buried in an Eastern city in a plot he bought when they were first married. My grandmother has no desire to be sent back East for burial. Her request seems valid enough, but we can anticipate trouble either way. Can you help us?—R.R., San Francisco, Calif."

You will need a lawyer. There seems to be something called the "right of sepulchre" that might fit this problem. If your grandfather, for example, bought the plot in his own name and erected a

Shenandoah Mountains chosen for honeymoon

Brenda Joyce Moers of Wayne became the bride of Gerald C. Murnigham of Willis in a May 27 ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Wayne. The Rev. Robert T. Romps officiated at the double ring rite before an altar adorned with baskets of rainbow-colored flowers as well as two arrangements in white.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moers of 4532 Howe Road, Wayne. The bridegroom is the son of Gerald Murnigham of Willis and Mrs. Joan Talfree of Ypsilanti.

For her wedding day, the bride chose a full-length gown of white rose-patterned lace sprinkled with sequins. The fitted bodice was designed with a square neckline and long sleeves and the skirt was fashioned of tiers of ruffles. Her floor-length illusion veil drifted from a lace petaled headpiece and she carried white roses encircling a corsage of white carnations.

PRECEDING THE bride to the altar was Lynn Berard of Wayne, the maid of honor. Her maize gown was in formal length with a puckered empire bodice trimmed in ruffled lace. With it she wore a matching veil and held cascading yellow carnations tied with ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids in similar Nile green ensembles were Marie Hammell of Wayne and the bride's sister, Barbara Moers. The bridegroom asked Ron Valentine to be best man and ushers were Jim Day of Willis and Ron Publiski of Belleville.

MRS. MOERS was escorted up the aisle in a long-sleeved formal gown of blue flocked fabric with matching accessories. Her corsage was comprised of white roses tipped in blue. Mrs. Talfree, the bridegroom's mother, donned an orchid coat-dress ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of orchid carnations.

The Knights of Columbus Hall in Wayne was reserved for the buffet dinner and reception which followed. Some 325 guests greeted the newlyweds who later departed for a week-long honeymoon in the Shenandoah Mountains of West Virginia. They are now making their home at Rawsonville Woods Trailer Park, Belleville.

The new Mrs. Murnigham is a 1971 graduate of St. Mary's High School. Her husband, who graduated from Lincoln High in 1968, is employed at Minick's Market in Willis.

Girl Scout News

Junior Girl Scout Troop 587 closed out its year with a camping trip to Lower Huron Metropolitan Park. They left Thursday, two hours after school was out and returned Saturday afternoon.

This was their first tent camping experience and being constantly in the out-of-doors seemed to make the girls extra hungry. So the food cooked over open fire was eagerly eaten.

Hikes on the trails, water fights, knot tying, and getting acquainted with other troops who were also camping occupied their time.

Those attending were Connie and Tammy Sampson, Cathy Pierson, Kim Sterling, Cindy Phipps, Tonya Ralls, Linda Partin, and Kathy, Patty and Kim LaMothe. Also Lynn Collier, Shelly McCarty, Marie Monforton, Lynn Courter, Lori Miller, Shelly Harris, and Tina Grishaber.

Troop leaders Mrs. Joan Monforton and Mrs. Pat LaMothe were assisted by Mrs. Lila Partin, Mrs. Wilma Sterling, and Mrs. Sharon Courter. Before leaving for home Saturday the girls received badges they had earned.

About two out of every five women workers in the United States are 45 years of age or older.

Scientists, for example, never wear black to funerals. Generally a widow wears some restrained color, but I remember the widow of a very prominent movie star (Gary Cooper) wore a dress in navy and white with white gloves and no hat. Your sister-in-law did not show lack of respect.

By the way, people who attend funerals today do so in ordinary street clothes. Official mourning wear on the part of the family is almost never seen in this country.

It did happen right here in Van Buren

To the editor:

Incredible, unbelievable, it just could not happen in America.

Well, on Tuesday night June 13, at the Van Buren Township board meeting "IT" did. Before getting into specifics, let me describe the scene.

The meeting got under way in the regular public meeting room of the township hall. Every seat was taken and additional people kept pouring in both doors. Due to this unpredicted attendance, the meeting was moved out into the garage. (This by the way is a "first" for Van Buren Township.)

The meeting proceeded through old business on a reasonable quiet basis until Tracey Carrabin came up on the agenda. Tracy presented the board with a stack of petitions which requested that the township board put the issue of accepting Belleville Lake and Edison Park on the August primary ballot.

Following Tracy's presentation, many of the attending citizens addressed the township board. Some spoke as individuals, some spoke as representatives of various local groups such as the Rotary Club, the Van Buren Civic Association, Chamber of Commerce, etc.

The general view presented was that the only reason the advisory issue was voted down in the May special primary was that many voters were influenced by the "Concerned Citizens" lie sheet. This was the garbage distributed throughout the township the day before the election.

It was further presented that now that the public had reviewed the truth about the park and lake, another vote would show overwhelming support for township acceptance of the Edison property. (I have reference here to the data published by the committee to save the park and lake for Van Buren Township.) Some other specifics presented to the board were:

— That any board member who opposed putting the issue on the ballot is in effect saying that he/she sees nothing wrong with special interest groups lying to the public and if as a result the public gets the short end of the stick, so tough stuff.

— One gentleman told the board that he would work for the removal from office of any township official, who did not meet his civic responsibility by voting to put the issue on the ballot. (Remember this point as I will refer to it later.)

After many people had voiced their opinions (not one single person in the audience spoke against putting the issue on the ballot) Trustee Blend made a motion to put the issue on the August ballot. This motion was supported by Trustee Cullin. At this point, Trustee Hogan said in effect that one vote was offered to the people and that's all they were entitled to. One young lady got up and said that our constitution recognizes that people can be misled and hence were always granted the right to revoke on any issue to correct a wrong. (I should point out that I was very proud of our young people who attended the meeting and voiced their opinions.)

Well, the vote was finally taken with Hogan, Payne and Birk voting against giving the voters another chance. It should be noted that Jerry Maton, at the specific direction of his employer (Detroit Edison) did not vote.

I think one has to be considerate of Mr. Maton's position because he has worked for Detroit Edison for 31 years and you just do not dump the biggest part of your working years down the drain. (In my judgement, had Mr. Maton been free to vote, he would have supported the motion as he has supported other issues which were in the best interest of the township.)

At this point, everyone except Hogan, Payne and Birk was hopping mad. The audience still just could not believe that with 150 people present, and petitions from 700 people who all unanimously wanted a yes vote — that Hogan, Payne and Birk could vote "no".

Mrs. Payne said that she voted "no" because she had been threatened. She referred to the gentleman, who said he would work for any trustee's removal if they did not meet their responsibility. When asked if she would have voted "Yes" if the challenge had not been made she said "not necessarily".

Now if you think this is a sad excuse for a public servant, Joe Hogan has her beat in spades. Joe was asked if he thought that the "Concerned Citizens" flyer was true or false. After stumbling around the question, he finally said he thought "It was substantially correct".

However, the only true statement in the flyer that he could think of was the fact that Detroit Edison was sued several years ago. Joe did not seem to want to talk about any of the other points of the "Concerned Citizens" flyer though because he knows just as well as I do that every other point in the flyer was a lie. NOTE: I will go over the flyer point by point anytime with anybody.

On Wednesday morning, Joe Hogan called Supervisor Gollwitzer and told him that he would vote for the issue if the supervisor would agree to add a tax increase to the issue. How is that for a sandbagger? Several people talked to Fred Birk, telling him that he was in serious trouble with the voters and ought to reconsider his vote. He indicated that he would think about it, but would have to check with Joe first.

So there it is, a truly sad story about three of our township officials. They obviously have no intent of representing the people. Consequently, who do they represent and why?

You will hear more about this in the weeks ahead because Edison Park and the Lake are just too important to 15,000 township residents to let three people deny them this outstanding recreational opportunity.

Belleville mayor thanked for lawsuit

To the editor:

This is to express my appreciation to Mayor Royce Smith of Belleville and the others for their efforts to block the proposal to build a deluxe baseball stadium for the City of Detroit at the expense of the Wayne County taxpayers.

This deal was conceived and promoted by a few people in Detroit for their own pleasure and indulgence. But the most astounding part of the deal was that it was so readily agreed to and endorsed by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The members of this board are all Democrats. In fact some are union officials and they all pose as friends of the working man, especially at election time. Yet it is the working man and the elderly who suffer from these kind of deals. They would pay for these lush facilities, but few would get to enjoy them because of the increased admission prices, high parking fees and other luxury costs.

Wayne County would unquestionably have better government if the electorate were more equally divided between the two political parties, or better yet, if we had a non-partisan Board of Commissioners. Then the members would more likely be elected on their records of responsibility than on their political affiliations.

Romulus teachers will get back pay

To the editor:

A conflict between Romulus Education Association (REA) members and the Romulus Board of Education will, apparently be settled in court. This comes as a result of that board's inactivity on the issue of retroactive pay for Romulus teachers.

REA members have been frustrated this year believing their contract salaries, as negotiated last year, would be paid.

The Internal Revenue, acting in behalf of the federal pay board, has notified the Romulus Board of Education that they may reimburse teachers for that portion of their salaries withheld during the wage-price freeze.

When approached by the REA, Robert L. McConeghy, Romulus superintendent, stated that he will not approve payment of retroactive salaries.

During a recent school board meeting, the issue was discussed when the school board opened for audience participation. At that time, Mr. McConeghy acknowledged that the decision whether or not to comply with the IRS approval is one of management. Again his decision was not in favor of paying teachers at their contract rates, and he refused to have the issue placed on the school board's agenda.

The REA sought legal council and is now reluctantly following a course that will only result in needless cost for legal services involving both association members and Romulus taxpayers.

The contractual provisions between the school board and the REA include grievance procedures which are now being implemented. When they are exhausted, a court suit will be filed.

Association members will receive their retroactive pay. Our only concern is: How much will it cost Romulus taxpayers because of mismanagement?

Belleville Rotary Club presents 2 scholarships

The Belleville Rotary Club recently announced the winners of their $500, 1972 Scholarship Awards.

The winners are: Miss Beverly Banotai, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Banotai, 20165 Elwell

Rd., Belleville; and Miss Pat Overman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Overman, 42445 Willis Rd. Both girls graduated this year from the Belleville Senior High School.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

To say, "I hope it will happen, but I'm sure it won't" is the first step to doom and defeat. Hope is a matter of proper thinking; positive thinking. It is an attitude conditioned by the mind.

Hopelessness can only occur when we give up hope itself. When one gives up hope, one gives up spiritual nutrition. Dismiss and despair are sure to follow. Defeat is admitted. The possibility of success or triumph is rejected. Spirits spiral downward...

Frustrations are a fact of life for all of us. But frustrations are always worsened when hopefulness does not exist. Hope is the best antidote for the poison of discouragement. Look around you. You will always find the hopeful person feels better, looks better, acts better than the hopeless person. All of us have been born with an instinct to hope. Develop it. Don't discard it...

Robert Baker, chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the club, presented the awards at the club's June 13 meeting. Miss Banotai graduated salutatorian of her class and participated as a member of the school's chapter of the National Honor Society, Spanish Club and Pep Club. She intends to make nursing her career and will attend Henry Ford Hospital's School of Nursing.

Miss Overman was vice president of the Honor Society, president of the Spanish Club and was a volunteer at Ypsilanti State Hospital. She plans to use her scholarship at the University of Michigan where she will study sociology.

Also at the June 13 meeting, the club's new officers for the 1972-73 year were installed. Three new members—Ben Robertson, Ron Beech and Douglas Brown were admitted into the club.

Miss Anne O'Beay and Dan Enos, both from Eastern Michigan University, entertained at the dinner-meeting by singing a few popular songs.

Pro scouts looking at All-Area picks

High school baseball games lure few fans.

But of the major prep sports, baseball draws the most attention from pro scouts.

And the 10 players selected today for All-Area honors, all have been given a good look at by area scouts who have already tagged one of the candidates as a potential big leaguer.

He's Dennis Ray, Garden City East's "havo-tossing" right-hander, who recently signed with the Detroit Tigers and is presently at Tigertown, Lakeland, Fla., where the Tigers are conducting a "second spring training" after which he will be assigned to one of the farm clubs.

Along with Ray, others honored on the Associated Newspapers' Ron Thompson (first base, New Boston Huron), Larry Hale (second base, Romulus), Steve Orr (shortstop, Garden City East), Bob Blaies (third base, Livonia Churchill), Bruce Davis (outfielder, Wayne Memorial), Mike Kottke (outfielder, Belleville), Dana Kemp (catcher, New Boston Huron), Art Mach (pitcher, Wayne Memorial), Vern Gowen, pitcher, Belleville).

Ray, a pitcher-outfielder, is the first player in East's Class A history ever to ink a pro Tiger contract. An 18-year-old, 175-pound, 6 foot-3 inch athlete he was picked his team's MVP after batting .436 in the Mid-Wayne Conference (.400 over-all), becoming a unanimous choice for all-conference. He appeared at the plate 55 times and collected 22 hits, including one homer, 14 RBI's and scored 13 runs.

"There's not enough you can say about this fine young man," remarked East High coach John Kulazenska. "Not only is Dennis a fine athlete, but a gentleman as well."

Ray's pitching credentials include a 9-2 won-lost record and a phenomenal 0.60 ERA. He pitched 70 innings this season and during the span whiffed 79 while walking only 25 batters. He gave up 46 hits.

Ray's two losses were extra inning affairs - one to Annapolis in the ninth, 1-0, and to Robichaud, also in the ninth, 4-1.

Mach, a senior-right-hander, led Wayne to its second Les Anders Invitational championship title after a "hard-luck" season. Though his earned run average on the year is second only to Ray's (0.70) he won six of his 11 decisions. Three of those losses were 1-0 games, two of which were extra inning contests.

A 6-2, 185 pounder, Mach has a variety of pitches and excellent control. In the 79 2-3 innings he worked, the 18-year-old senior struck out 121 and walked 23 while giving up 46 hits.

He also wielded a potent bat as he collected 34 hits in 81 appearances at the plate for a hefty .420 average. He knocked in 20 runs.

"He's one of the finest all-around kids I've ever worked with," said Wayne Coach Jim Chronowski, "and I'm glad he's now getting the recognition he so rightfully earned."

Like Ray and Mach, Belleville's southpaw Gowen was given the "tough ones" to stop in the expanded Suburban 8 Conference this year. The 17-year-old senior relied on his fastball to win five of his nine league decisions and compiled 65 strikeouts in the 64 innings he worked on the mound. Vern gave up 50 hits and walked 17. He piled up a 1.69 ERA.

The 6-foot-2, 175-pound left-hander was also the Tigers' leading hitter, getting 21 safeties in 60 trips to the plate for a hefty .350 average. Gowen also was named to the All-League team.

"His arm and bat kept us in the title race," said Belleville Coach Vitold Kaminskis, whose team finished third in the league. "He's one of the best all-around players I have coached in the many years I have been here."

Two juniors, Dana Kemp and Mike Dansard were nominated for the catching chores and Kemp was given the nod as he finished the year with a superb .391 batting average which included 16 runs batted in in a 27 of 69 batting season.

"He's the best catcher in our league," said Coach Ron Smith, "and he had a good strong arm along with being one of the best natural hitters I have coached."

Dansard batted .346 for the Belleville ball club as he

West's Dropp named as area's top coach

One doesn't lose three games in a row, then expect to have the season that Garden City West had.

West, after a frustrating start that was exclamation with extra inning losses, to John Glenn (15 innings), Dearborn Heights Annapolis (11 innings) and Garden City East, managed to recover to stay in the Tri-River Conference title picture until the last game, losing eventually to Taylor Kennedy by one run.

Coach Bob Dropp's Tigers finished with a 10-4 league record and a 14-9 over-all mark, the best in the area this season.

How about the account for the "turnaround"?

"We had good pitching and I knew it was only a matter of time that our batters got the hits. And though we were depressed because of those three extra inning game loses, we knew it wasn't the end," said Dropp.

"Then came that one week when we won six in a row and collected 62 hits and 34 runs and that did it for us," the West coach pointed out.

BOB DROPP

Dropp, who finished his seventh year as head coach at West received an "extra bonus" as he is being honored as The Associated Newspapers and Daily Eagles' Coach of the Year.

Five batters, who wound up hitting the ball at a .300 or better average, sparked the Tigers to their winning season.

Sophomore pitcher Terry Dobbs, who won five of seven starts, belted the ball at a hefty .430 pace, while Darren McHugh, who today was named to the All-Area team, finished with a .422 average. Another soph, Jerry Herbst had a .312 average. Bill Baker and Jerry Volas batted an even .300.

The 29-year-old coach has to be optimistic when he looks to the future. He had only three seniors playing on this year's squad.

"With most of these boys back I feel we will be able to field respectable teams for the next two years at least."

West's 10-4 league record duplicated the Tiger won-lost production of 1968 when the Garden City ball club won the Tri-River Conference championship as well as the Les Anders Tournament.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota where he received his degree in education, Dropp majored in biology, he and his wife, Kathy make their home in Westland. The Dropps have three children, all boys: Ricky 6, Brad 3 and Mike, 18 months.

Kuryliw won't be returning

BY TOM MOORADIAN

For better or worse — Ed Baum is making sweeping changes within the Romulus High School athletic department.

Baum yesterday announced he wasn't renewing the contract of tennis coach Zane Kuryliw. Kuryliw becomes the second coach within a month to "fall by the wayside."

ZANE KURLIOW
Also sidelined

Earlier, head football coach George Pratt was told his coaching contract wasn't going to be renewed and that Bill Hardy, an assistant football coach, would be given the job.

"We are in the process of upgrading our athletic program," said Baum. "This is the reason for the present changes."

Replacing Kuryliw as tennis coach will be David Court who also handles the chores of coaching the varsity basketball team. Kuryliw, a seasoned net mentor, took a slap at the school's facilities as a departing gesture. He said during the past few years he has asked the department head to mend the courts.

"Our courts are in the worst condition possible," said Kuryliw, "and the department has done nothing about it. I don't know how they expect anyone to play on them. Even opposing coaches comment on the poor condition of our courts."

The 45-year-old veteran coach is an English teacher at the high school and holds a masters, from Eastern Michigan University, in literature.

One thing for sure, it's going to be pretty sad around these parts in the summer without Zane.

Mike Gouin, the man from the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department, says they have three teams committed to play in the "experimental" a.m. slo-pitch softball league.

And Wayne's one away from making the league a reality.

"That's right," said Gouin, "we have three teams all lined up ready to play in the morning league and if we can find one in the morning, I hope they would contact me," Gouin added.

"If there are any teams that want to play slo-pitch baseball in the morning, I hope they would contact me," Gouin added. (He can be reached at the Wayne recreation offices PA 1-7400).

A big Thank you

Mr. Chester Wojcie, Association Pres., and Mr. Jose R. Garcia, Chief Umpire, wish to express their appreciation to all of the fine men who unselfishly give of their own valuable time towards umpiring for the Belleville Little League Association.

Coughlin, Spearman's keep streaks intact

Coughlin Air and Spearman Foods continue to roll along undefeated after the first five weeks in Romulus' adult Softball League.

Coughlin overpowered Carpentry by Woodcraft 27 to 7 on Tuesday and Romulus Welding 15 to 3 on Thursday. Chuck Hazen was the winning pitcher against Carpentry and had a homer and 4 RBI's in a 3 for 4 performance. Jr. Rakotz also had 4 RBI's with 4 hits and Bill Worden had 5 hits in 6 trips. Coughlin amassed 36 hits in the contest.

Rich Rakotz, Les Pennington, Tom Block and Ralph Rakotz each had three hits in four appearances to lead Coughlin past Romulus Welding. Ralph Rakotz was the winning pitcher. Coughlin's collected 23 hits. Spearman's Fine Foods rode a 30-hit attack to victory Tuesday 17 to 0 over Baum's Funeral Home. Rich Koklia hurled a 1-hitter to gain the win. Don Twitchel with 5 for 5, Bill Howell 4 for 4 and Darwin Wessel 4 for 5 were Spearman's leading hitters.

Spearman's collected 15 hits and got past Romulus Hardware and Auto Supply 10 to 6. Romulus Progressive Club scored five runs in the first three innings then held on to defeat Cue Corners, 5 to 4. Progressive scored twice in the opening inning when John Sterling singled and scored on Ken Mientkiewicz' double. Harmon Schonfeld then singled and Mientkiewicz scored as Fred Eberline's grounder was booted.

Hugh Miller doubled to open Progressive's second inning and scored on winning pitcher Bob Zygal's single.

In the third, back-to-back doubles by Bill Reiber and Mientkiewicz, a sacrifice fly off Schonfeld's bat and an error gave Progressive its final two runs.

The Corners, down by five, got a couple back in the fourth when William Steinhauser and Gary Buhro singled, Ray Osak was safe on a fielder's choice as Steinhauser was forced at third. Jim Polanz lifted a fly to deep left and Buhro scored from second after the catch. Ray Osak scored as Kevin Carrieco's grounder was booted.

In the top of the seventh, Cue Corners rallied but fell one run short. Polanz singled and Carrieco was safe on an carved 18 hits in 52 appearances. Thompson, who doubled as a pitcher while playing first for Huron, rounded out his prep athletic career with a .314 batting average as he connected for 17 hits in 54 appearances at the plate.

A 17-year-old, 5 foot 9, 190 pound right-hander who also throws righthanded, Thompson kept the Chiefs above waters. Huron finished the year with a 7-9 league and a 11-13 over-all record.

Romulus' Hale belted two home runs and finished the season with a superb .437 batting average.

"He did everything for us," said rookie coach Bill Cuhnan whose Eagles were left without the incentive of a league when the Twin Valley Conference disbanded last year. "If we had more players like Larry we would have ended with a much better record than our 6-12."

Orr, is a versatile athlete who is well-known to area fans, winning an All-Area berth as quarterback last year. The slick-fielding second baseman who was East's leadoff and MVP, batted .386 in the Mid-Wayne (9 for 35) and .345 over-all (19 of 55) in helping the Panthers to a 7-5 (league) and 11-6 (over-all) records.

A 150-pound, 5 feet 9 left-handed batter, Orr "has the glove and arm to take him as far as he wants to go," according to Coach Kulazanka. "He was our leadoff man and still batted in six runs and scored 17 times himself," said the East coach. "I am glad we'll have him back next year."

Rounding out the infield is Churchill's Bob Blaies who combines excellent fielding with aggressive base-running. A junior who didn't commit a single error while handling the third base chores for Coach Roger Frayer's Chargers, Blaies picked up 16 hits in 56 times at bat and also stole six times.

Wrestling camp set for July 10

Some of the top coaches in the state will be instructors at a summer wrestling camp for junior and senior high school boys at Schoolcraft College the week of July 10.

The camp will be directed by Dr. Larry Meyer who coached Schoolcraft to the state junior college championship this year. Instructors include John Rollins, coach at Lansing Everett, and Dave Porter, coach at Grand Ledge.

Dr. Meyer said boys younger than junior high may be admitted to the camp but that it would depend on there being one other boy in their weight class.

Huron Valley Association sets rodeo for next month

The Huron Valley Conservation Association will sponsor a professional rodeo on the weekend of July 7-9 at the 4-H Fairgrounds, located at the I-94 Expressway and Belleville Road Interchange.

Evening performances are scheduled for Friday, July 7 and Saturday, July 8 with an afternoon performance slated for Sunday, July 9.

The professional rodeo, which will be the first ever held in Western Wayne County, is sanctioned by the International Rodeo Association. The professional cowboys and cowgirls competing will be vying for prize money and points that count toward this year's national championships.

The events will include bareback bronc riding, calf roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, bull riding, team roping, and cowgirl barrel racing.

The Huron Valley Conservation Association will use the profits from the event to send boys to the M.U.C.C. Training Camp and Hunter Training Classes. The sponsoring organization will also make donations to local community projects such as the Ypsilanti Boys Club and the Michigan Nature Association.

Tickets are now on sale and they may be purchased from any Conservation Association member or at the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, the Keg Party Store in Ypsilanti, and Hoots Boots in Belleville.

Tickets will also be sold at the gate on the days of the rodeo.

Northville to open 29th season Wednesday

Northville Downs opens its 29th summer campaign on Wednesday, June 21, with racing for 36 nights through Tuesday, August 1. Executive Manager John Carlo is looking forward to the greatest season in history.

The Downs summer session in 1971 found all records going by the boards for attendance and handle and Northville had the biggest increase in nightly average handle of all tracks in the Metropolitan Detroit area.

It wound up with an average nightly total of $417,584, best ever at the half-mile plant. Wagering also set a record for a single night with $608,697 on Saturday, July 3.

Racing Secretary Harry Peterson, and assistant Tom Smith have checked in to make the final screening of applications.

Peterson believes he'll have the best racing stock ever gathered at the Downs for a summer program.

"We anticipate many of the top stables shipping in from Wolverine Raceway and staying for the entire meeting," said Peterson. "We'll have a series of $5,000 Michigan colt stakes during the week beginning July 10 as one of the highspots of the summer campaign. By the time the colts arrive here, we'll have a complete line of the top candidates in each division and should have keen competition in each event."

The official family will be much the same as that during the winter. Clay Hulett of Fowlerville, will be state steward with Frank Utter as presiding judge and Clair Cook as associate judge.

Post time for the summer meet is 8:30 p.m. There'll be 10 races with the double on the 1st and 2nd; a trifecta in the 6th; and a trifecta in the 10th.

Three-time NCAA wrestling champion Greg Johnson of Lansing and two-time NCAA sprint champ Herb Washington of Flint have won Michigan state's two top athletic-academic awards for 1972. Johnson was given the Chester Brewer Award and Washington the Big Ten Medal of Honor.

Restaurant-lounge plans studied by township

Louis A. Toth, former Van Buren Township supervisor, has informed the Van Buren Township Board of the proposed location of his cocktail lounge and restaurant.

Toth, 44119 Harmony Lane, Belleville, is seeking the approval of the township board on his request for a Class C liquor license.

The presentation of the bar-restaurant location to the board was a preliminary step toward getting the board's approval.

The proposed location for the planned establishment would be on the southwest corner of Denton Road and the south service drive of the I-94 Expressway.

The board deferred its approval of the liquor license pending a study by the township building department of the architectural drawings and plans for the cocktail lounge and restaurant.

Romulus women terrorized at home

Two Romulus women spent a terror-filled quarter hour last Tuesday at the hands of two men who invaded their home.

Sheriff's deputies said the women, 97-year-old Anna Frommert, and her daughter, Hattie, 59, were at their home at 36443 Ecorse Rd. when they heard glass shatter in their front window and saw a rock, thrown by one of the men, land in their living room.

Both men then climbed through the broken window, and one of the burglars grabbed Anna Frommert and held her around the chest while the second man ransacked the house.

Deputies said the bandits stayed for 15 minutes, from 8:30 p.m. to 8:45, and left with a large, but undisclosed sum of money.

Neither woman required medical treatment.

IMPROVE YOUR HOME

For entire neighborhood

Dogs can cause headaches

By VIVIAN BROWN

Dogs may be worth their weight in loyalty and affection to owners, but they may be a real nuisance to neighbors. In summer dogs are aired for longer periods and may mess up everything in the neighborhood—flower beds, terraces, driveways. They overturn garbage cans. In apartment houses, there are yapping dogs to contend with all through the year.

One elderly woman living alone has been driven to distraction, she says, by "a nice young couple who keep their dog locked up all day while they work." In the early morning and in the evening, the dog is aired, and the couple doesn't care "where she visits."

The woman's porch is used as a comfort station. To make matters worse "the dog often brings a friend with her."

The lady doesn't want to harm the dog, but she'd like to use a repellent on her porch to discourage the dog. A gate erected as a barrier at the porch "was so light, it was blown down and the dog was back again within a few minutes."

An operator of a kennel has used dog repellants and says good ones may be obtained from veterinarians or dog shops and these work quite well. There are the aerosol type and some that are diluted with water. She also has found the use of chlorine bleach diluted with water quite effective. She fills up a plastic bucket with the solution and keeps it handy to wash the porch.

An elderly couple's problem is similar. Their real joy in life is their flower garden, but they are made miserable by their neighbor's dog trampling over their plants and overturning their garbage pails. They are getting too old to do unnecessary chores, they point out.

These are not isolated instances. In some large cities dogs have become such a problem that owners may be given summonses if dogs are not curbed when they are walked. In most communities there are ordinances to cope with such situations. These may provide penalties for those who ignore regulations concerning the airing of animals.

Most dog wardens do not enforce the rules unless they receive complaints. They understand it is virtually impossible to keep a dog on one's property all the time. The most obedient dog will be lured occasionally from his property by another dog or an animal scent.

But the daily troublemakers should be reported.

Anyone with a dog problem might consider these solutions:

If a dog visits your yard occasionally, you might accept the fact that your neighbor may not be able to control the situation. Dogs will stray from time to time. But if it joins a pack, it should be reported to the owner.

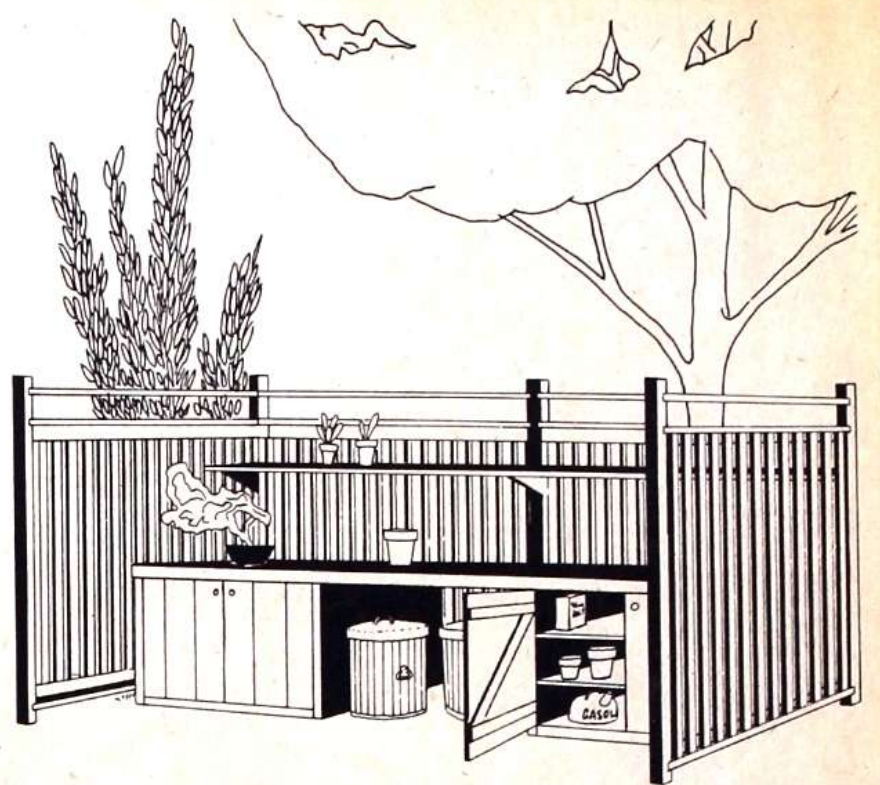

If a dog is permitted to roam every day, the dog owner is inconsiderate of his neighbors and his dog, who isn't happy being a tramp. That neighbor should be given a kindly warning that his dog is a nuisance.

If the owner continues to ignore his dog's wanderings, investigate town ordinances. If dog-roaming invokes penalties, call it to the attention of the dog owner. One man had great success in having an owner build a pen for his dog. He had solicited the help of other neighbors, and told the dog owner that there was considerable feeling about the dog in the neighborhood, and that if someone should report Fido to the warden, the fine might be $50. The dog owner took the hint, and did not hold a grudge against his neighbors.

For a little outlay of money, a dog pen can provide great happiness to a dog, its owner and the neighbors.

One veterinarian suggests pens of 5 by 10 feet or 10 by 20 feet, depending on the amount of space available. A pen should always be longer than wider to keep the dog exercising. A square pen invites laziness.

Big Dogs—Labrador Retrievers, German shepherds, doberman-needs sturdier fencing, such as chain link attached to stanchions, and a strong gate. But little dogs can be successfully penned with sturdy wire or wooden fencing or both.

STORAGE SPEEDS YARD TASKS — Convenient storage combined with work counter reduces the drudgery of work and saves many trips for scattered tools while gardening. Posts are 4-by-4-inch red cedar, stringer are 2-by-4s, vertical screening 2-by-2s, counter 2-by-12-inch planks. Sunscreen or roof can be added. The structure also screens leisure living activities from work areas.

Garden storage unit cuts steps, screens area

An organized outdoor storage area means less drudgery and more time to spend on the enjoyment aspects of gardening.

Just think how many unnecessary steps are saved by not having to trek to garage or basement and back, when tools, sprays and other supplies are kept in one place in the garden.

Advance planning will place the unit in a central location or closest to the main work areas. A garden storage structure may be freestanding, or attached to a fence, garage or house wall.

One handsome, efficient work-storage unit can be constructed to serve as a yard divider as well, screening off work areas from the leisure living portion of the yard.

Room For Potting

For the avid gardener, this unit includes a working space about the size of a kitchen counter, with room below for barrels or bins of potting soil, peat moss and other mixtures. Lock-up cabinets keep tools, fertilizers and lawn mower fuel safe. Conduit can be laid from the house to provide outlets for electric edgers or mowers.

The basic structure of the three-sided unit is 4x4-inch posts, 2x4-inch stringers, 2x12-inch vertical screening and 2x12-inch planks for the counter. For the posts, western red cedar is a good choice and even though cedar is naturally decay-resistant, it's a good idea to treat with preservative that part of the posts to be underground.

Keep Tools Handy

The stringers and screening can be cedar or other western woods such as Douglas fir, pine or spruce. A shelf or two above the work surface holds newly potted plants or keeps smaller tools and supplies handy while working.

The screening blocks the work counter from view and also can be used to hide a composting area or other unsightly part of the yard. The unit is designed without a roof, but could have a slatted sunshade or cedar-shingled roof if desired.

For ease of maintenance through the years, the wood can be left to weather naturally, or be stained lightly.

System brings together environmentalist, builder

By ANDY LANG

A sure way to start an argument—or, at the very least, a heated discussion—is to place a house builder and an environmentalist in the same room.

They are natural enemies. Have been for a long time. But the era when the builder could smile condescendingly at the environmentalist, while his workers continued to construct according to plans, is long since past. Today it is the land conscious individual who has the upper hand, carried along by the support of the general public, finally aware that it is possible for people to spoil the gifts of nature.

Newspapers are continually recounting the battles between developers and community authorities and civic groups over the proper use of land. "You may own the land," the builders are being told, "but you are not going to use it indiscriminately."

Many builders are protesting restrictive zoning codes and regulations, but others are cooperating by using cluster planning and other methods designed to keep much of the land in its natural state yet fulfill the need for more and better housing. A giant effort to get builders and environmentalists to see each other's point of view will be taken June 27 and 28 when they are linked by closed-circuit television in eight cities—New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Washington, Chicago, Dallas, Atlanta and Miami.

Two-way audio intercommunication between all cities will make immediate communication between the panelists possible, so that a guy in Chicago, for example, can ask Ralph Nader (one of the panelists) a question and get a quick answer. Some of the other participants include Secretary of HUD George Romney; the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, William Ruckelshaus; the president of the Sierra Club, Phillip Berry; the chairman of the board of the U.S. Home Corp., Robert Winneman, and the chairman of Environmental Systems International, Barry Berkus.

A subsidiary of General Electric, Tomorrow Entertainment Inc., is directing the conference along with Management Concepts International under the sponsorship of the trade magazine, Professional Builder. The vice president of Tomorrow Entertainment, Woody Benoit, says examples of successful collaboration between builders and environmentalists from around the country will be shown. Builders and others at the meetings in the eight cities will be invited to ask questions.

In some ways, this is a kind of Nixon-Mao Tse-tung session, bringing together those with long-held opposing viewpoints. It will be interesting to see what it produces.

(Removing mildew, repairing squeaky floors and stairs, and patching plaster and concrete are among the 35 subjects in Andy Lang's helpful handbook, "Practical Home Repairs," available by sending $1 to this newspaper in care of Box 5, Teaneck, N.J. 07666.)

Siding season here

Summer is the season for siding a house, and nothing adds a more pleasant personality than rough-sawn western red cedar boards or traditional bevel siding of western wood.

A good time to re-side a house is when remodeling or adding a room, but it can be done at any time. There is a wood siding style and pattern to complement any architecture.

Board siding has many variations, plain tongue-and-groove, board-and-batten or board-on-board, and clapboard. These are further varied by using rough or surfaced boards and by leaving them to weather naturally, staining or painting.

Another popular style, channel rustic, may be applied vertically or horizontally. For a different accent wall, tongue-and-groove or shiplap drop siding can be applied diagonally.

For an eight-page booklet colorfully illustrating siding styles and applications, send 15 cents in coin to Western Wood Products Assn., Dept. 522-P, Yeon Bldg. Portland, Or. 97204.

Hang zig-zag ruler with knotted string

By AL CARRELL

Dear Al:

Like all my other tools, I wanted my zig-zag ruler to hang from the shop wall. I tried to brainstorm the problem and came up with a simple way to do it. I made a loop from a piece of heavy string. By running the string between the two center sections of the rule, it can be pulled through until the knot reaches the rule. The loop can then be hung over a nail, and the knot keeps the rule in place at the end of the string.

R.D.J.

Dear Al:

I bought an inexpensive paint sprayer and have painted everything in sight. One lesson I learned was that removing the light bulbs in outside fixtures was not enough. The paint got inside the socket and prevented a proper contact. I now save a few burned out bulbs and screw these in place when painting. They keep the paint out of the socket.

J.D.

Dear Al:

Another shop use for carpet sample scraps! I use them as protective covers for my circular saw blades. First I squirt the carpet with old crankcase oil. Then I sandwich the blade between the scraps with the pile side in. A wide rubber band holds the sandwich together while in storage. The blade can't get damaged and stays lubed against rust.

D.B.

A super hint—Even if you flunked geometry, there is a quick way to approximate the capacity of a cylindrical tank. Measure the diameter in feet. Multiply this figure by itself. Then multiply this times 80 per cent. (A circle fills about 80 per cent of an enclosing square.) Now multiply this resultant figure times the height or length of the tank. This gives you volume in cubic feet. There are approximately 7 1/2 gallons to a cubic foot. If you had a tank 12 feet tall with a diameter of 10 feet, here's what you'd do. 10 x 10 equals 100 x .80 equals 80 x 12 equals 960 cubic feet x 7 1/2 equals 7200 gallons (approximately). Or you could look on the side of the tank and see if it tells the capacity.

Dear Al:

By filling an empty roll-on deodorant container with heavy grease, I can carry this much needed lubricant right in my toolbox without any mess. The roller makes an easy applicator, too. I tried light oil in these containers, but it seeped out around the top. Grease won't. F.P.L.

Shop talk — Would you believe recapping bicycle tires? An adhesive compound marketed to stop roof leaks, repair driveways and other such chores has been found to be super at resurfacing bike tires. If you're re-cycling that old two-wheeler from the garage, this may save your having to invest in new rubber. The stuff is referred to as BLACK STRAP ADHESIVE COATING.

Al Carrell welcomes all mail, especially tips from fellow Handymen which he can pass on to readers as space permits. While he cannot answer all individual letters, he will try to nail down your problem in his column whenever possible.

Home gardeners must eye purchases

When nurseries are stocking their finest specimens of plant materials for spring planting, home gardeners should be mindful of a few pointers to help them pick the best plants for their landscape.

Before buying trees or shrubs, examine each plant for blemishes caused by insects, disease organisms or rough handling. Insect damage is usually obvious and off-color plants hint of disease damage or poor fertilization. Poorly shaped materials may be due to improper pruning or damage in handling.

A quick check with the thumbnail on a small twig to find out if the plant is green and alive is recommended. If plants are healthy, they will be white to green underneath the outer bark.

Leaves on evergreens should be green — not brown — and the bark of deciduous shrubs and other plants without leaves (at the time you are selecting them) should not be dry.

Don't buy plants that have injury or sunken spots. These areas are ideal for diseases. Swellings or bumps on the crown or lower part of the stem are an indication of crown gall, a common bacterial disease of nursery stock.

The alert shopper should also be aware of the latest improved varieties rapidly replacing the older plants on the market. Proper selection of many modern varieties can give the homeowner flowers in the spring, attractive summer foliage, showy fruit, good autumn foliage color and interesting branch patterns in winter.

Consider the plant's hardiness or ability to withstand local winter conditions, adaptability to local soil types and resistance to insects and diseases.

Italy comes alive!

The splendor of Italy's past, and the charm and variety of her present come vividly to life at the al fresco Italian Ethnic Festival on Detroit's riverfront at Cobo Hall this weekend.

This will be one of the largest of the summer series of weekend downtown festivals.

A unique aspect of the Italian festival will be an outdoor cafe created by the Italian-American Chamber of Commerce. Visitors can enjoy a drink, watch the passing parade and listen to strolling mandolins and accordians. The cafe will be decorated with flowers, fountains and statues.

Entertainers from the metropolitan area will be performing Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Friday evening's show will feature the Dino Valle Review, the Peimonte Dancers, Ada Adams and Dino Valle. Scalzo and Company, illusionists, will be there and Giovanni Leone's Band will supply the music.

Ilio Benvenuti's orchestra will perform Saturday evening 6:30 to 11 p.m. and the public will be invited to dance or just listen. Frankie Rapp, comedy artist, will supply the humor between dances.

Sunday afternoon, Mr. Whoodini, a magician, will entertain the children. Additionally, there will be a variety of talent from local music studios.

Sunday evening, a two-hour mock Italian wedding including folklore, singing, dancing and comic commentary will conclude the entertainment.

Italian Sons and Daughters, Buon Amic Lodge, Peimontese Ladies, Italian American Club, and the Columbus Federation will help staff the festival.

Italian Festival hours are 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Ella Fitzgerald still at Elmwood

Ella Fitzgerald, continues at the Elmwood Casino through Saturday. Rounding out the bill is comedian Frankie Rapp, with the Wally Schaefer Orchestra backing the acts and playing for dancing.

Coming to the Elmwood following Miss Fitzgerald is Tom Jones, June 27 through July 8, followed by Jack Carter, July 10-22.

Engraver bakes

MATTOON, Ill. (AP) — Orville Richardson is an engraver by day and a baker on weekends.

His baking began with his wife's appetite for Italian foods.

His first effort was Italian sausage. Next came Italian meat pie. Then he moved on to Italian bread and rolls.

"I made about 40 loaves of bread before I got the kind I wanted, but you have to have failures to learn," Richardson said.

John Grimoldby was selected as Best Supporting Actor and Nancy Carter was chosen as Best Supporting Actress for their roles in "Never Too Late".

Illustrating the old maxim, "There are no small parts — only small actors" was Marilyn Moorehead who received the Best Vignette Award for her short role in "Flowers for Algernon".

"Never Too Late" received the prize as Best Show of the Year.

Others receiving honors were Ginny Tadlock for best props in "Never Too Late"; Nancy Carter for best make-up in "Many Moons"; Lou McKee and Rosemary Sutton for best costumes in "Many Moons"; Marty Moorehead for best lighting in "Flowers for Algernon"; Fred Button for best sound in "Never Too Late" and Larry Ringe for best set design in "Never Too Late".

Opening the presentations was Fred Button, 35042 Hees, Livonia, newly elected president of the group who succeeds Robert Wagner.

"We were proud of the four productions we staged this season," commented Button, "and look forward to an especially exciting and innovative year for next season," said Button.

"We extend an open invitation to all members of the community to assist us in our coming productions, whether it be on stage, back stage or in the audience."

"It is our aim to keep serving our community with good entertainment and good theatre," he added.

Modern dancer returns to Detroit

Summer weekend dance performances at the Detroit Institute of Arts are already established as favorite public events since they began the first week of June.

The tempo of interest will accelerate on Saturday and Sunday, July 1-2 with the appearance of native Detroiters Rod Rodgers and members of his New York Company performing from their modern dance repertoire.

A departure from the usual 2 p.m. performance time in the museum's North Court is Rodgers' plan to hold a rehearsal from noon to 4 p.m. on Saturday, July 1. Museum visitors are invited to watch the performance evolve.

Sunday, July 2, at 2 p.m. the audience will see the polished version of the program.

The museum's education department organized this summer weekend series to bring performing arts — as well as the visual treasures in the museum's 101 galleries — to a wider public at no special charge.

Rod Rodgers' appearance will renew many Detroit associations. His parents were popular dancers and his mother is now the proprietor of Rapa House, where local musicians and actors have an opportunity to win a public.

Rodgers himself speaks of his weekend Art Institute appearance and the workshops his company will conduct at Metro Arts Complex (Selden and Woodward Ave., Detroit) during the following week as an opportunity to develop similar future programs for Detroit.

McCauley vows to fight excessive school spending

State Sen. John E. McCauley (D-Wyandotte) says he appreciates the kind comments made by many of his colleagues, but he would have appreciated more the necessary votes to strip $10 million plus from the higher education bill.

Sen. McCauley represents the 11th District.

"For more than a year, I have been rooting about in the dim recesses of the twilight zone that characterizes the financial machinations of our state-supported colleges and universities," McCauley said.

"In just one small area, travel, sabbaticals, and other leave taking devices, I uncovered substantial evidence to show that the $10 million I wanted to cut out would not harm one bit the educational opportunity Michigan gives to its youth. Indeed, such a cut might improve their opportunity, for some of those who travel hither and yon would have to stay at their school and teach."

McCauley's efforts were complimented on the floor of the senate, but when the vote on his amendment to cut the money came, the effort fell short. The higher education bill passed by a 24-11 vote.

"At a time when the legislature is scraping and scratching, while at the same time hoping there will be no need for a tax increase, the failure to slash $10 million in fat from the higher education sacred cow is simply incredible," McCauley declared. "The same people who jealously guard the constitutional autonomy of the state schools are the same people who can't or won't abide by another constitutional directive that requires a full disclosure of all financial transactions."

Calling the failure of his amendment "merely the first round in a long battle," McCauley said he would continue to develop information in the area of state educational spending.

"Sooner or later the chickens will come home to roost, and the legislature will have the courage to pluck a few pin feathers from their multi-million dollar plumage," McCauley said.

Citizens, civic leaders start safe driving program

A group of concerned citizens and civic leaders in the Downriver Area have banded together to initiate a safe driving program under the sponsorship of the Security Bank & Trust Co. of Southgate.

The citizens group felt the complexities and scope of county affairs commands the average citizens to play a larger part in his community affairs. The safe driving program is designed to utilize both the citizen and the police efforts in one concerted effort.

A press conference was held last Wednesday (June 13) at Ponchartrain Hotel in Detroit to introduce the safe driving program and its theme — "Be a big person — 'Think Small' — Drive Carefully, Please."

Only local residents to be hired

All future employees hired by the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department must be residents of Romulus.

The Romulus City Council has issued a directive to Frank J. Tolish, director of the city's parks and recreation department, to employ only Romulus residents in the future.

Attending the safe driving conference was the nucleus of its supporters: guest speakers, William Lucas, Wayne County sheriff; Lowell Peacock, president, Security Bank & Trust; and Nanci, 8-year-old billboard model.

Also present were the mayors and chiefs of police from Trenton, Southgate, Riverview, Wyandotte, Lincoln Park, New Boston, Ecorse, Taylor, Romulus and Melvindale.

Peacock defined the "Think Small" program. "It is our way of reminding our drivers to drive carefully in the next several months when our children will be outside playing. By 'Thinking Small' they will grow up safe and happy. All you have to do to insure their safety is drive each street as if it were 'your own'. Be a big person ... 'Think Small.'"

Lowell stated, "the program is designed to involve all of our citizens. The Downriver Area is a test area for one year, if our concerted efforts help reduce traffic accidents, the program will be expanded for 1973."

The program will be implemented by making bumper stickers and kiddie vehicle stickers available. Twenty-four billboards were put up, June 14.

An outdoor Port-O-Board will be placed at busy intersections in various communities. Window banners will be displayed by the communities merchants, and counter cards will be available at all Security Bank & Trust branches.

Also media advertising starts today (Wednesday).

In addition to supplying the community with 'Think Small' materials, the mayors, chiefs of police, sheriff's Department, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts will assist in the distribution of the materials.

Peacock stressed the program will consist of quarterly meetings of the citizens group to check results and to consistently improve it. His hopes are to prove this form of community involvement can assist in helping solve some of its problems and to make the streets safer for all of our children.

Sheriff Lucas added impact to Peacock's message by stating, "it has given me pleasure to work with this citizens group and I believe the hope for the future is through concerted efforts of each community. I think that when the average citizen becomes aware of the number of deaths and injuries due to traffic accidents, their efforts will be even greater to make the streets safer."

Sheriff Lucas stated "that 97,445 traffic accidents had occurred in 1971 in Wayne County. In the Downriver Area there were over 4,000 traffic accidents and 32 fatalities for 1971. These figures confirm the fact that traffic deaths and traffic accidents are still a needless hazard in every community."

Rubbish truck bids referred

Bids received by Van Buren Township on the purchase of a new rubbish collection truck have been referred for study to Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer.

The bids were submitted by Atchinson Ford Sales of 9800 Belleville Rd., Belleville, which submitted a bid of $7,192 for the truck's body, Pezzani and Reid of Detroit, which submitted bids of $6,149 and $6,396 on truck body and rear packer, and Garwood-Detroit Truck Equipment Co. of Warren, which bid $6,539 for the truck's packer.

Sumpter alters meeting dates

The monthly meetings of the Sumpter Township Board of Trustees will be held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month instead of the second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

The new township board, appointed by Gov. William G. Milliken, approved the change in township board meetings to conform with the dictates of the township's elections at their annual meeting held April 1.

The former board trustees and clerk continued to hold their monthly meetings on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month, contending the electors had no authority to change the date of the monthly meetings.

The motion to follow the dictates of the electors and change the meeting dates was made by Mrs. Pauline Quinley, township clerk. She was supported by Trustee Mrs. Cecilia Chudzinski.

The motion was carried unanimously by the board. The first meeting in July will be held July 5, due to the Fourth of July holiday.

High court refuses to hear McKee case

The U.S. Supreme Court has refused to review the case of Mrs. Mary McKee, 54, who operated a bookkeeping and tax return preparation service at 4950 Textile Rd., Ypsilanti.

Mrs. McKee was convicted in January, 1970 on 15 counts of aiding and assisting in the preparation of false federal income tax returns of others. U.S. District Judge Thomas P. Thornton at Detroit sentenced Mrs. McKee in April, 1970 to serve three years in the federal penitentiary. The first three months of her sentence were to be served undergoing psychiatric testing.

In June, 1971, a motion by Mrs. McKee for a new trial was denied by Judge Thornton after a hearing on the matter.

During the trial it was shown that Mrs. McKee prepared false income tax returns by omitting income, claiming fictitious expenses, overstating expenses, claiming non-existent dependents are claiming transactions on returns which in fact never took place.

The government contended at the time of her conviction that it had recovered in excess of $700,000 in additional taxes, interest and penalties as a result of examining income tax returns prepared by Mrs. McKee for her clients.

The Supreme Court's refusal to review the case was announced by U.S. Atty. Ralph B. Guy Jr. at Detroit.

Troop 231 display wins first at Scout-O-Rama

Members of Boy Scouts Troop 231 sponsored by the Trinity Episcopal Church in Belleville participated in the Scout-O-Rama held at the Michigan State Fairgrounds last week.

The troop members received a first place prize for the scout display. The troop was asked by the Boy Scout Council Activities Committee to return to the Michigan State Fair with their booth in August as part of the "Youth" area.

The display, a planetarium, is a dome covered cubicle showing the position of the stars on June 7 at 11 p.m.

A 15-minute tape recording explains each constellation as viewers look overhead where small lights depict the star placement.

The effort of the scouts and their leaders was rewarded not only in the prize and invitation but in the overwhelming attendance of "customers" at the booth for the three days of Scout-O-Rama.

Troop 231 is open for membership and is seeking more boys as they move ahead with plans for an Alaskan trip next year.

The Alaskan trip provides an incentive for the boys to foster scouting, advance in rank and participate in camping experiences.

More information may be obtained from Scoutmaster Calvin Light. The troop meets on Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Trinity Episcopal Church.

Resignations are accepted

The Romulus Board of Education has accepted the resignations of three members of the teaching staff.

Belleville to initiate summer recreation program

The City of Belleville will initiate its first summer recreational program for adults and children alike on Monday, June 26.

The City Council has appropriated $3,900 for the fiscal year starting July 1 to finance the summer recreation programs, which will cover a 10-week period.

This is the first year Belleville has budgeted funds for the recreation department. Belleville and the Lower Huron Metropolitan Park facilities will be used for various recreational activities

Monday through Friday each week of the program.

On Monday, Mayor Royce E. Smith announced free bus services will be available to Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, beginning at 9 a.m. on June 26.

He announced the tentative route of the bus will be as follows:

The bus will leave the Belle Vista Estates Clubhouse on Sumpter Road at 9 a.m. each morning Monday through Friday. It will proceed to the Belleville Senior High School on W. Columbia Ave. back to Church Street, to High Street, to Third Street, on to Main Street and then to Liberty Street. The bus will circle Liberty Park, then proceed down Huron River Drive to Potter Street to Edgemont, to Greylock Street, to Clarence Street, to Robbe Street and, then to Huron Metropolitan Park.

Mayor Smith said the bus will make four trips a day. It will leave Lower Huron Metropolitan Park and return to Belle Vista Estates clubhouse at 11:45 a.m. The bus will return a second time at 1:30 p.m. and make the final return at 4:45 p.m.

If a revision in the bus schedule is required, proper notification will be published.

The mayor stated if anyone residing in Van Buren Township wishes to board the bus on the way to the park, the driver will be instructed to pick up Van Buren Township residents if room is available. All small children must be accompanied by a supervising adult. The bus will stop at all street corners except Main Street because of its traffic, Mayor Smith reported.

Romulus church to present film

"For Pete's Sake!" a film credited as unique in its capacity to reach out to meet the problems of people, will be shown on Wednesday, June 28, at Calvary Baptist Church, 11338 Ozga Rd., Romulus.

The full-length comedy-drama, filmed in brilliant Eastmancolor by World Wide Pictures, will be shown once beginning at 7:45 p.m. and is open to the public at no admission charge.

Filed entirely on location in Denver and the Colorado Rockies, "For Pete's Sake!" is the story of Pete Harper, a family man and service station owner, who is knocked flat by unexpected problems, but finds the strength to stand up again, to face life anew.

The film has been seen nationwide by more than three million persons in theatre premieres and has been cited by one film critic as "the perfect mixture — it's drama at its boldest, comedy at its lightest, and action at its liveliest."

"For Pete's Sake!" is a family film, not only because it is good family entertainment, but because through its storyline, families can see and feel exactly what is needed to develop deeper understanding and build stronger ties.
